

Announcements for Sunday, May 10, 2020

Worship Today - Intern Pastor Patty Bjorklund will lead us in worship today. She has created a beautiful worship for all eight of the internship parishes. Thank you Intern Pastor Patty and all who assisted her for the gift of helping us praise God today.

Worship Participants - Intern Pastor Patty Bjorklund and members from each of the area internship sites: Holden/Dale, Gol, Grace, Hegre, Trinity, Vang, and First.

Happy Mother's Day - Thank you to all mothers and all who nurture and care for others. You are a blessing to so many and you help keep love moving in the world.

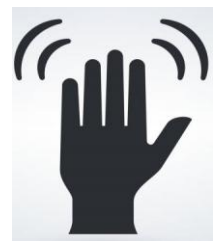

Happy Birthday to Marcy Kvittem -

Please share your words of joy and celebration with Marcy and all who celebrate another year of living boldly.

Sunday, May 17 at 11:00 a.m. — Drive By “Honk and Wave”
Our church parking lot will host a drive by “honk & wave” for the six 2020 KWHS graduates who are members of First Lutheran:

*Julianna Boyum, Thomas Haasnoot, Megan Mattson,

The Students will be parked in the church parking lot, facing west. At 11:00 church members, family and friends are invited to drive in the south entrance of the parking lot, drive by, “honk & wave” to show their support of the students and exit out the north.

Generosity – Thank you for your continued generosity with your gifts during this time of Sheltering in Place. You are making a difference in at First Lutheran and in the Kenyon area, county, state, nation and world. You are a blessing of hope and caring.

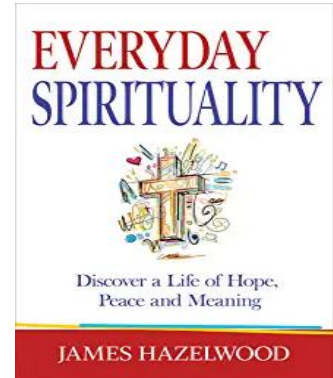

Congregation Watch Program – Are we missing someone in our community who is in need? Are we missing their need for help? Please reach out to Pastor Julie and let her know at Firstpastorkenyon@gmail.com

Book Group On Zoom — Everyday Spirituality: Discover a Life of Hope, Peace & Meaning
written by former bishop, James Hazelwood

We will meet at least three times toward the end of May. Please let Pastor Julie know if you would like to join the discussion.
